TWICE BEAT YALE

Crimson Freshmen and Junior Varsity Eights Triumph in Annual Regatta

VARSITY RACE AT 6:30 P. M.

New London, Conn., June 23.-Harvard crews triumphed over Yale in two races of their annual regatta here today.

The Crimson freshmen won the first contest when the Eli shell was swamped 200 yards from the finish and the Harvard junior varsity won by two length in the second race of the day.

in the second race of the day.

The varsity race is scheduled to start at 6:30 o'clock tonight.

The Yale freshmen got into difficulties after passing the mile mark and were soon passed by Harvard. The Yale shell began to fill slowly and fell behind. Within 200 yards of the finish the Yale craft swamped and the crew stopped rowing, while Harvard passed over the finish line a winner. A navy launch took the Yale carsmen from their waterlogged shell. Harvard's time was 11 minutes 0 seconds.

The Crimson juniors were four seconds faster than the freshmen in winning their race. Their time was 11 ning their race. Their time was 11 minutes 5 seconds. Yale's time was 11 minutes 16 seconds.

Jock Hutchison had a disastrous ex-perience at the fourth hole in the fourth round, taking a seven. He had a fine four at the sixth, however, where he pitched the ball to within three feet of the pin after pulling his second shot Hagen, who is the only American-born of the three United States golfers, went out in 36 for the first nine holes of his third round.

Hagen played steadily going out, except that he dropped a stroke at the second through approaching over the green, but he made this up by holing a twelve-yard putt at the ninth. He half topped his iron shot to the thirteenth and this time a ten-yard run-half topped his iron shot to the thir-teenth, and this time a ten-yard run-up put hit the back of the hole and popped out again.

From that point everything went wrong fer him, and but for good put-ting he would have dropped several more strokes. At the fourteenth he was at first in the rough at the right and then to the left.

At the fourteenth he was first in the rough at the right and then to the left. At the fifteenth he was short with his run up and at the sixteenth was bunkered to the right of the green. At the seventeenth he was again trapped in the rough to the left and with his next shot was short of the green in 3 and just missed a putt of five feet. He topped his drive to the last hole and was bunkered at the left and then went into the rough to the right, again not being up in 3.

TO DECIDE DOUBLES TODAY

Wilmington, Del., June 23. — The Delaware State tennis tournament is now rapidly drawing to a close, and the gailery will have treats both today and tomorrow.

This afternoon Miss Florence Ballin, of the West Side Tennis Club, New York, has been sensational, and when they meet Miss Leslie Bancroft, of the Longwood Cricket Club, and Mrs. John B. Jessup, of the Wilmington Country Club, there will be plenty of action. The finals in the men's doubles and the mixed doubles will take place to-morrow afternoon, the former at 4:30, and the latter at 5:30.

The men's singles finals this afternoon will be some battle when Phil Neer, of Leland Stanford University, California, and champion of the Pacific Coast, meets Stanley Pearson, of the Philadelphia Cricket Club at 4 o'clock. Neer's battle in his bracket has been a great one.

Yesterday afternoon Sidney Thayer defeated his cousin, Alec Thayer, both of Philadelphia, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4. Neer then came along and in three tensions of the challenge round.

afternoon play Mrs. John B. Jessup in the challenge round.

These matches will bring out record-breaking crowds, as both Miss Ballin and Miss Bancroft are leading tennis exponents in this country. The finals in the women's doubles is also scheduled for 5 o'clock this afternoon, and will bring four stars into action.

The rival pairs have blazed their way through the tournament, and are on edge for the final-battle. The work of one of the pairs, Miss Ceres Baker,
